Kevin Wanzer - "Empowering audiences ~ one laugh at a time"

Keynote Speaker • Inter-club Luncheon • 12:30 p.m.

Our keynote speaker today, Kevin Wanzer (pronounced WAND-ZER) credits Kiwanis international for helping him become the speaker he is today. In 1983, as an active Key Club member from North Central High School, in Indianapolis, Kevin helped host first lady Nancy Reagan's visit to Indianapolis in conjunction with Kiwanis, the NBA and the international Just Say No to drugs program. In 1984, as a result of meeting and working with Nancy Reagan, Kevin was appointed by then President Reagan to serve as a delegate to the White House Conference for a Drug Free America. To this day, Kevin is still the youngest presidential appointee in American history. Kevin was also invited by Mrs. Reagan to testify in front of the United Nations on the importance of young people serving their community. Since 1983, Kevin has spoken in front of 2,500 audiences and has reached countless students, educators, and parents all over the world including China, Europe and Singapore. He has been noted nationally as one of the most effective and entertaining speakers for schools, colleges and to audiences of adults who work with and empower the lives of youth. An honors graduate from Butler University, Kevin served on the staff of The David Letterman Show. We know you will enjoy his unique and entertaining style and message.
