Mac Macdonald - "Navigating the Seven C's of Mission, Vision and Passion" Nationally Recognized Motivational Counselor

Keynote Speaker • Inter-club Luncheon • 12:30 p.m.

Hang on to your hats! We are in for a great ride with our keynote speaker, actor, and nationally recognized motivational counselor Mac Macdonald. Mac will help us form a mindset of winning, perseverance and rejuvenation. As Mac says, "This is the beginning of a new decade and we want to come out of the gate fresh and whole and committed. Democracy wins or loses based upon the active participation of Kiwanis members."

His work as an employee development trainer and consultant began over thirty years ago. He received his undergraduate degree in psychology and performed graduate work in International Relations on scholarship at Oxford. His managerial experience on the Alaska Pipeline complements his diverse professional accomplishments.

Mac Macdonald is also a film and television personality, appearing in "American Graffiti", "Apocalypse Now", "Murder She Wrote", and many television commercials. He is a member of the Screen Actors Guild (SAG), American Federation of TV and Radio Actors (AFTRA), the Master Builder's Association, several charities such as ChildHaven, the Jubilee Women's Center, non-profits such as the American Heart Association, the Seattle and West Seattle Chambers of Commerce and the World Affairs Council.

As are the members of Kiwanis, Mac is a community leader and organizer. His home is a frequent gathering place for charitable events and international visitor functions. The holidays always find him playing Santa Claus for many worthwhile causes. He also volunteers his counseling services to domestic violence issues for CCRADV (Coordinated Community Response Against Domestic Violence).

"Kiwanians," he says, "are those people who show up in life to make this a better planet on which to live. I couldn't be more proud than to be amongst you all."
